

David R. Saunders

CPA

Dave is the founder of Saunders, Wangsgard & Associates and is a Certified Public Accountant at SWA where he spends most of his time in tax return preparation, advanced tax planning, financial statement preparation and analysis, issue resolution and financial statement review engagements. Dave began his career with a national firm GrantThornton. Following several years of intense training and on-the-job experience with companies like Saddleman and Icon Health & Fitness, Dave started his grassroots CPA practice in 1993 in Cache Valley. He eventually merged with Jeff Wangsgard in 2000.

With over 30 years of experience preparing client tax work, Dave is well versed in the tax code and able to efficiently minimize tax liabilities. Dave loves to work, and works hard for the client.

Beyond SWA

Dave has an insatiable desire to golf and when not serving a client at the office can be found on the fairway either at The River or in Bear Lake. Dave enjoys anything sports related, reading, running and spending time with his wife. If he were not an accountant, he would want to be a teacher.

Dave's unquestionable desire to take care of the clients motivates him. He is responsible for creating a culture of service at SWA and making sure that SWA staff go above and beyond client expectations. He pays meticulous attention to details in a constant quest for perfection in his work and personal life.

Dave's favorite quote emphasizes his persistence in continuing improvement: "Never, Never, Never Quit." Winston Churchill.
