

ACCOUNTANT PROFILE

Nathan T Nydegger

CPA

Nate is a Certified Public Accountant at SWA where he spends most of his time in tax return preparation, tax planning, financial statement preparation and analysis, issue resolution and financial statement review engagements. With over ten years of experience preparing client tax filings, Nate is well versed in the tax code and able to efficiently minimize tax liabilities. Nate specializes in small business tax applications in a wide variety of industries. His favorite part of tax and accounting is working with clients towards a common goal.

Previous to joining the SWA team in October 2010, Nate worked for a tax and accounting firm in Salt Lake City. While there, he gained extensive experience working directly with small business owners to manage their businesses and tax filings. Additionally, Nate consulted regularly with individuals regarding their tax situations.

Education

BS – Accounting from Brigham Young University
MBA – Taxation from Weber State University
Certified Public Accountant in Utah

Beyond SWA

Outside of accounting and taxes, Nate enjoys anything basketball related, reading, running and spending time with his wife and two daughters. He hopes to be a consistent marathon runner and his favorite book is The Count of Monte Cristo. If he were not an accountant, he would want to be an architect or astronomer.

Nate's insatiable thirst to learn drives him in most of his endeavors. He pays meticulous attention to details in a constant quest for perfection in his work and personal life. These qualities, combined with experience make him an essential asset for any client.

Nate's favorite quote emphasizes his persistence in continuing improvement:

"I've missed more than 9,000 shots in my career. I've lost almost 300 games. 26 times, I've been trusted to take the game winning shot and missed. I've failed over and over and over again in my life. And that is why I succeed."
